

Driving console

The driving simulator will allow to measure your reaction times, to illustrate their meaning and their relation to the speed. The console will provide a complete driving position and the use of panoramic screens with a vanguard graphic engine for very realistic experience of driving.

Alcotest Drager

The ethilometer is a measurement tool used for determining the level of presence of alcohol in the blood. Through a disposable nozzle you will inflate in the apparatus, that determines in few seconds the alcohol concentration in your blood.

Drugtest "ORATECT III" (COC, OPI, THC, AMP, mAMP, BZO)

The test will analyse the level of presence of drugs. You will insert the device in your mouth for collecting saliva (approx for 2 min). Then you just have to wait 5 minutes in order to read the results on the device.

Questionnaire